

Device for orthosurgical treatment of anomalies and deformities of the upper jaw in the transverse plane comprises a base with a mid-sagittal split, a clamp, and screws. Device comprises an acrylic base, a multi-link clamp, and a stainless steel bilateral expansion screw; the acrylic base features a single mid-sagittal split and four titanium fixation screws with a polished surface, 2.0 mm in a diameter and 14 mm in length.