

"Gas train" for gas supply of small settlements and enterprises by rail consists of a passenger car for technical personnel, a tool car, a flatcar equipped with a gas-powered generator, a flatcar with a modular regasification station, a tank car for fire safety, and gas hoses for connecting the autonomous system to the central gas supply system, as well as tank cars for liquefied gas. The number of tank cars for liquefied gas ranges from twenty to twenty-five.