

Method for combating winter diarrhea in bees involves adjusting composition of carbohydrate food reserves. The adjustment is carried out by feeding the bee colony in the fall with a mixture of 60% sugar syrup and 0.5 g of 2-arachidonoylglycerol per 1 liter of sugar syrup.