

Rail bond consists of a rail, an anchor fixed to the railway sleeper, and a spring clamp. The anchor is made in the form of a U-bolt ladder with a clamping bar and a retainer. Elastic gaskets are installed between the clamp and the bottom of the rail.