

Clothespin is a single-piece part. Single-piece part comprises two side sections connected at the top by central section with the possibility of contact on the inside via protrusions and recesses. Central section allows for contact between its inner surfaces.