

Method for disinfecting premises against infectious diseases in broilers involves disinfecting the poultry house with product containing, by weight %: hydrogen peroxide – 23, peracetic acid – 5.0, acetic acid – 5, auxiliary substances – surfactant, water, at a concentration of 0.5%, with an exposure time of one hour.