

Method for producing fruit and berry ice cream enriched with phosphopeptides includes preparation of plant raw materials, preparation of the mixture, filtration, pasteurization, cooling, aging, freezing, packaging and hardening. During preparation of the mixture, casein phosphopeptides are additionally added in an amount of 0.1–0.3% of the total amount of recipe ingredients.