

Method for preparing permanent slides of fleas of the genus Ctenocephalides in toto involves preparing the insects and mounting them on a glass slide to create permanent micro-preparations. The fleas are prepared by immersing them in an iodine-containing solution. The optimal immersion time in the iodine-containing medium is 5–6 minutes. Permanent micro-preparations are mounted using Faure-Berlese fluid.