

Album for comprehensive storage of military awards and accompanying materials, featuring a system for systematizing and organizing commemorative items, includes a case made of plywood sheet material with a genuine leather spine, a Velcro panel for attaching military insignia and patches, high-density A4-sized cardboard sheets for holding photographs, a four-ring metal mechanism for holding the sheets, a specialized box with a velour insert featuring rectangular and circular openings for attaching awards without additional mechanical intervention, and compartments beneath the insert for storing award certificates.