

Locking valve comprises housing, plate washer, bracket, and fittings. Inside the housing, there is spring-loaded diaphragm, spool, and one-way seal. Plate washer is designed to relieve pressure. Bracket is designed to mount valve on vehicle wheel. Fittings are designed with the possibility of attaching valve.