

Eco-friendly bin for household organic waste is made of biodegradable material, with its inner surface coated with a thin layer of polyethylene. It is elliptical in shape and features integrated through-handles. A fold is provided near the handles to allow the bin to be closed. The bottom is cylindrical in shape. The upper edge is designed to serve as a stiffening rib.