

Method for growing peas includes primary and pre-sowing soil preparation, fertilizer application, sowing seeds in continuous rows, and crop care involving harrowing before and after emergence. 10-12 days after emergence, the upper part of the pea stems is cut back to a length of 6–8 cm on half of the sowing area.