

Method for pre-sowing treatment of leguminous seeds involves treating the seeds before sowing with a mixture containing tetramethylthiuram disulfide and an antibiotic. A 3% solution of phytobacteriomycin is used as the antibiotic, and tetramethylthiuram disulfide is applied in the form of a 30% fluid paste.