

Method for immobilizing irradiated graphite involves grinding the irradiated graphite and adding titanium dioxide. The resulting mixture is cast into a cubic mold with side lengths of 0.15 meters and then transferred to a container for storing radioactive waste.