

Energy consumption monitoring and battery testing system includes a digital monitor, a microcontroller, a memory chip, a display, a Wi-Fi transceiver, and a cloud server. At least one additional digital monitor is installed to measure battery parameters.