

Method for optimizing digestive processes in calves involves the use of starter feed in feeding calves. A feed additive - a phytobiotic preparation containing a combination of essential oils extracted from aromatic herbs and spices - is added to the feed at a rate of 70 g/t of starter feed.