

Intermittent flooding hydroponic system consists of an outer and an inner reservoir and nutrient solution delivery system that connects the outer reservoir to the inner one, which houses the hydroponic basket containing the plant. The hydroponic basket is equipped with a moisture sensor and is connected to the nutrient solution delivery system.