

Manicure and pedicure file is made in the form of an oblong plate and consists of a working part, both sides of which have an abrasive surface, and a handle. Wherein, the working part is made like a curved spiral, with a radius of curvature that gradually increases from the edge of the file toward the handle.