

Method for feeding sharptooth catfish (Clarias gariepinus) involves feeding the fish a complete feed throughout the growing period, consisting of 50% high-protein sunflower concentrate, in which the crude protein content, calculated on a dry matter basis, is not less than 47%, and the crude fiber content is no more than 8%.