

Laboratory installation for testing electrical appliances for immunity to power frequency magnetic field includes voltage regulator and induction coil measuring $1 \times 1 \times 0.12$ m made of copper tubes. Installation additionally contains connection device with alligator clips rated for currents up to 150 A, for connecting current generator to $1 \times 1 \times 0.12$ m induction coil.