

Method for inactivating Bacillus anthracis bacteria involves the use of a colloidal solution of silver and copper nanoparticles 10–50 nm in size chelated with food acids, with sporicidal properties, at a concentration of 50–500 $\mu\text{g}/\text{cm}^3$ for an exposure time of 2 hours.