

Cage for sacroiliac joint arthrodesis, which has a faceted shape, has a hexagonal hexagram cross-section. The vertices and depressions of the hexagon have smooth contours, containing a threaded axial hole in the caudal portion.