

Harpoon-type cornice profile features two longitudinal open cavities and two longitudinal slots for mounting suspension elements. Cornice profile includes two recesses for hidden installation of light source.