

The invention relates to a pharmaceutical formulation comprising a mixture of a first granular composition comprising valsartan disodium salt and a second composition, which is preferably non-granular, comprising or essentially consisting of sacubitril sodium salt. The second composition may be non-granular or granular. The invention further relates to a pharmaceutical dosage form comprising such pharmaceutical formulation and to a process for preparing such pharmaceutical formulation.